Sentence Formation

Concept

Rules for Sentence Formation are easy if you know the types and format. Let's see some of the important pointers below:

- Meaningful collection of words help to form a sentence with proper grammar rules.
- Clear, short sentences are preferable, and more effective, than long, complex ones.
- By using the Grammar Rule it can be suggested that sentences are a set of subject, verb, and object.
- Subject always comes first, continues with a verb, and following the subject.

Sentence Missing

Sample Question 13

WHO is bringing the world's scientists and global health professionals together to accelerate the research and development process, and develop new norms and standards_____. The solidarity of all countries will be essential to ensure equitable access to COVID-19 health products.

☐ has begun collaboration with key partners to enrich the citations

☐ This database represents a comprehensive multilingual source of current literature on the topic.

☐ to contain the spread of the coronavirus pandemic and help care for those affected

☐ While it may not be exhaustive, new research is added regularly.

Sample Question Solution 13

C option

The sentence that can continue in the blank should be about the disease that WHO is trying to contain and hence all the research and processes are taking place.

Sample Question 14

If stress has you anxious, tense and worried, consider trying meditation. _____ Anyone can practice meditation. It's simple and inexpensive, and it doesn't require any special equipment.

☐ these benefits don't end when your meditation session ends.

☐ Spending even a few minutes in meditation can restore your calm and inner peace.

☐ a growing body of scientific research supports the health benefits of meditation

☐ Be sure to talk to your health care provider about the pros and cons of using meditation

Sample Question Solution 14

B Option

As the passage starts with a remedy of stress and anxiety as meditation. The sentence that will follow should talk about how meditation can help. so, 'Spending even a few minutes in meditation can restore your calm and inner peace.' can be the answer.

Sample Question 15

Recycling is important in today's world if we want to leave this planet for our future generations. _____.

Recycling begins at home. If you are not throwing away any of your old products and instead utilizing it for something new, then you are actually recycling.

☐ Recycling solves the problem because a lesser amount of wastes is dumped, and some valuable space is saved.

☐ With each passing day, the population is increasing.

☐ we've been careless up to this point with the way we've treated the Earth

☐ It is good for the environment since we are making new products from the old products which are of no use to us

Sample Question Solution 15

D Option

The passage starts with the term 'Recycling'. From here, it should be followed by what is the actual meaning of recycling instead of jumping to the problem, population or human mistakes.

Sample Question 16

COVID-19 has fundamentally changed our relationship with the office.

_____ pushing about 40% of the labour force into working from home, few of us want to return to the pre-pandemic status quo.

- we miss the sociability of the workplace
- After the enforced experiment of lockdown
- The experience of working from home has helped break down many of the prejudices
- how many days a week in the office is enough

Sample Question Solution 16

B Option

The sentence here addresses the issue of how covid and lockdown has forced people to work from home. So instead of directly jumping to work from home, we first need to state the cause. and that cause is Lockdown.
